Petrova Conquers Québec City

Qualifies as Doha alternate and wins second Tour singles title of season, all in one week

QUÉBEC CITY, Canada - She needed to reach the semifinals in Québec City to qualify as an alternate for the Sony Ericsson Championships - Doha 2008, and with three easy wins to start the week she achieved the feat with flying colors. But Nadia Petrova didn't stop there by any means, winning that semifinal handily on Saturday then battling past a game Bethanie Mattek on Sunday to win the Tier III Bell Challenge title.

Petrova, the top seed - as well as a heavy tournament favorite given her exceptional form the last six months - was barely tested en route to the final, losing nine games against qualifiers in her first two matches then notching a 61 64 win over Melinda Czik in the quarters to earn the aforementioned alternate spot at the year-ending event. Her string of straight set wins kept going as she then beat first-time semifinalist - and lucky loser - Angela Haynes, 61 63.

Another first-timer - Bethanie Mattek, the No.6 seed and playing the first singles final of her career - was next for Petrova. And she took it to the Russian early, using her all-court game to offset her opponent's own aggressive game. Mattek won the first set and was up a break in the second before Petrova got her mojo back, taking that set then cruising to a 46 64 61 win.

"Bethanie made it so difficult for me today," Petrova said. "I really had to work hard. The 4-all game in the second set was probably the key moment of the match; it was important I won it. I'm happy how I finished in the third set.

"It was really wonderful to win this event. To finish off the season like this is wonderful. Now I have a long journey ahead of me to Doha, but it'll definitely be worth it. And then it'll be really nice to put the racquets aside for a few weeks!"

Petrova won her second Sony Ericsson WTA Tour singles title of the year, having won another Tier III event in Cincinnati. She now has nine titles to her name, and will join Agnieszka Radwanska as an alternate in the Qatari capital.

Mattek, whose best results before this week were three semifinal appearances, reached her first career final with some entertaining wins, most notably coming back from a 5-3 deficit in the second round to beat Canada's Valérie Tétreault, but also taking out No.5-seeded Canadian darling Aleksandra Wozniak in a tight semifinal. For a player who hadn't played since the US Open, not such a shabby feat.

"I didn't play for a month after the US Open because I hurt my hip there, and I was playing outdoors in Arizona ever since then," the 23-year-old said. "So I was trying to get more and more comfortable with each match here in Québec. I had a great week this week. It was my first time here, and now I can tell why it's one of the players' favorite tournaments. Congratulations to Nadia - she played really well all week, and I wish her luck this week in Doha."

Anna-Lena Groenefeld and Vania King took the doubles title earlier in the day. The No.2 seeds, they edged No.4 seeds Jill Craybas and Tamarine Tanasugarn in a close two-setter, 76 (3) 64. It was the pair's first title together; Groenefeld now has eight Tour doubles titles to her name; King now has six Tour doubles titles.

WEEKS AT NO.1

Jankovic, Black, Huber maintain strangleholds

Jelena Jankovic spent her first week at No.1 during the Olympics this past summer, between August 11 and 17; she returned to the top spot on October 6 and now spends her fifth straight week there, totaling six career weeks as the world's No.1. She passed Evonne Goolagong to become 17th on the all-time list but has a ways to go before catching Venus Williams, who is 16th all-time.

Cara Black spent her first 16 weeks at No.1 from October 17, 2005 to February 5, 2006. She spent two more between June 11 and 24, 2007, and began her third stint on July 9, 2007. This week she gets her 70th straight (88th overall) week at No.1. Black is a few months from becoming the fifth player since the inception of computer rankings to spend 100 total weeks as the No.1 doubles player. Liesel Huber joined Black at No.1 on the 2007 year-end rankings, and this week spends her 52nd straight week on top.
